Ceremony information: (See music lists and audio clips at GretchenBrumwell.com/wedding-selections.)

Prelude: I will be ready to start playing 30 minutes before the ceremony start time.

Prelude music style(s) preferred* (choose as many as desired):

Classical Love songs Celtic Sacred Contemplative No preference

Prelude music request(s): _____

Seating of Parents/Grandparents:

Traditionally, parents of the wedding couple are seated immediately before the processions.
(Grandparents are sometimes also seated at this time.) You may choose a song for me to play during this time, or I can simply continue to play prelude music as they are seated.

Plan for seating of parents/grandparents:

We are not planning a special seating of parents/grandparents.

We are planning a special seating of parents/grandparents, as follows:

Number of separate seatings (usually by household): _____

Last person/people seated: _____

Music: Continue prelude music Song choice: _____

Processionals:

Traditionally, a wedding ceremony includes two processionals: one for the wedding party and one for the bride. Sometimes only one processional is used.

Processional music:

Two processionals:

Wedding party processional: _____

Bridal processional: _____

One processional: _____

People processing:

Total number of adult attendants, including junior: _____

Total number of child attendants: _____

How will they enter?

Number entering from side (not processing): _____

Number of adults/juniors processing: _____ Singly In pairs

Number of children processing: _____ Singly In a group

Will the children come to the front or to a seat? _____

Ceremony music:

Music may or may not be desired during the wedding ceremony itself. It is common for music to be part of a unity ceremony (unity candle, unity sand, handfasting ceremony, etc.). Music at this time can either be a meaningful song you choose or simply quiet background music.

No music needed during the ceremony.

Unity ceremony:

Background music Song choice: _____

Type of ceremony/what will happen*: _____

Is anything else included in this moment? No Yes (below)

Signing the marriage license Giving flowers to mothers Other: _____

Other music during the ceremony: _____

Recessional:

At the end of the ceremony, I will play a recessional for the exit of the wedding couple and the wedding party.

Recessional choice: _____

Postlude:

After the recessional, I will continue to play music as guests leave.

Please let me know if I can answer any questions or help in any way.
